You are Invited to Emory Healthcare’s Learning Resources Center (LRC)

Be an active participant in your or your loved one’s healthcare. Ask questions, make informed decisions, be an advocate!

You will have the opportunity to …

- Check email

- Use Care Pages to stay in touch with family & friends. Care Pages are a personalized initiative by Emory Hospitals that supports the philosophy of Patient & Family-Centered Care

- Explore specific illnesses, symptom management & treatment options

- View: MEDLINE PLUS, a website with a large collection of Patient Education information & materials from the National Library of Medicine http://medlineplus.gov/

- Research Clinical Trials
  - What are clinical trials?
  - Who is a candidate for a clinical trial?
  - Where is best clinical trial for my loved one located?
  - Why would I or my loved one be interested in a clinical trial?
  - How would I find more about a specific clinical trial?

Many of these trials are developed by researchers at the National Institute of Health, the Center for Disease Control (CDC), pharmaceutical companies, and/or other federal agencies. All clinical trials must go through a rigorous review process conducted by a research Institutional Review Board (IRB).

The LRC is located on the 2nd floor next to the hospital auditorium. Go to the “E” area elevators on the 2nd floor, through the glass doors of the auditorium lobby, straight ahead and knock to enter.

The LRC hours of operation are from 8:00 am through 4:00 pm Monday – Friday. Call 404 712 7124 for additional info.
